- 10 Designating January 26, 2011, as "Women's Day" in West Virginia.
- 11 Whereas, Women comprise fifty two percent of the population of
- 12 the State of West Virginia; and
- WHEREAS, The State is thankful and proud of the accomplishments
- 14 and achievements of West Virginia's women; and
- WHEREAS, Women in their roles as workers, leaders, mothers,
- 16 friends, caretakers, daughters, activists, politicians, sisters and
- 17 wives make enormous contributions to their families and local
- 18 communities while also contributing to the general well-being and
- 19 betterment of the State as a whole; and
- 20 Whereas, The women of West Virginia are gathered today at the
- 21 Legislature to celebrate their achievements and to draw additional
- 22 attention to the continued need for work on equity issues such as
- 23 workplace equity, legal equity and social equity; therefore, be it
- 24 Resolved by the West Virginia House of Delegates:
- 25 That January 26, 2011, is hereby declared as Women's Day in
- 26 West Virginia and all citizens are urged to celebrate the enormous
- 27 contributions of women to the success of the State; and, be it
- 28 Further Resolved, That the Clerk of the House of Delegates

- 1 forward a copy of this resolution to the West Virginia Women's
- 2 Commission.
